

For Putnam County, FL

Basic Information for Sheltering Pets with owners in American Red Cross Shelters or other Mass Care Shelters for People.

Most emergency shelters such as American Red Cross shelters cannot accept animals other than Assistance (Guide, Hearing, Service) Dogs.

Per Federal Law, the ADA and Dept. of Justice Assistance/Service Dogs of any type do NOT have to be certified nor do the owners have to carry any proof of their dog being a trained Assistance/Service Dog.

Assistance/Service Dogs in training, retired Assistance/Service Dogs, ESAs (Emotional Support Animals), or Therapy Animals/Dogs are not allowed in these shelters. These animals must be placed elsewhere such as in a pet-friendly shelter.

Activation of Shelters

Like evacuation shelters for people, pet- friendly evacuation shelters are only activated during emergencies. And like evacuation shelters for humans, a pet-friendly evacuation shelter should never be considered as a first choice for a pet.

In Putnam County, FL our PFS is under the command and activation of:

Putnam County Department of Emergency Services

Under the Putnam County Emergency Services are the Emergency Services Functions (ESF). ESF-17 is the emergency function dealing with animal support. The group of volunteers formed by this function is Putnam County Emergency Animal Support and is led by the Emergency Animal Support Coordinator. The PFS is a part of Emergency Animal Support and is overseen by the Putnam County Pet-friendly Evacuation Shelter Coordinator.

At this time Putnam County only has one PFS. The PFSs must be set up in co-location with ARC shelters. Only those pets whose owner(s) are registered and staying at the Red Cross Shelter will be allowed into the PFS. Any pets left after the owner checks out and leaves the Red Cross Shelter will be turned over to the Putnam Co. Animal Control Shelter.

During extreme weather conditions, such as an approaching tornado, members of the PFS Team will lock down the doors to pet rooms and will go to the human shelter. As soon as possible they will return to the pets.
